The image shows a digital word puzzle interface. At the top, there is a red horizontal bar representing a score, with the number '0' on the right side. To the right of the score bar is a circular icon containing a question mark. On the left side, there are two blue buttons labeled 'Edit' and 'Reset'. In the center, five brown circular tiles are arranged horizontally, each containing a white letter: 'y', 'r', 'e', 'f', and 'r'. At the bottom left, there is a blue button labeled 'Clue'.

The image shows a crossword puzzle interface. The puzzle grid is white with a blue border. The grid contains 9 numbered starting points for clues:

- 1: 10-letter horizontal word starting at row 3, column 1.
- 2: 8-letter horizontal word starting at row 3, column 2.
- 3: 1-letter vertical word starting at row 1, column 4.
- 4: 7-letter vertical word starting at row 3, column 4.
- 5: 6-letter vertical word starting at row 1, column 4.
- 6: 4-letter horizontal word starting at row 1, column 5.
- 7: 8-letter horizontal word starting at row 1, column 6.
- 8: 10-letter horizontal word starting at row 2, column 5.
- 9: 6-letter vertical word starting at row 2, column 7.

The control panel on the right side of the interface includes:

- A question mark icon in a blue square.
- An "Edit" button.
- An "Input method" section with two options: a pencil icon (selected) and a letter 'A' icon.
- A vertical "Clues" button.
- "Solve" and "Reset" buttons.
